2. Spoke to Messrs. Wisner and [REDACTED] respecting the unsatisfactory situation as to the timely delivery of cables having intelligence interest. Suggested that the Signal Center (and/or Cable Secretary) be authorized to disseminate to DD/I directly all cables of intelligence interest, and, particularly, that any operational cables of sufficient intelligence interest to be shown to the Director be sent simultaneously to DD/I. Also suggested that DD/P accept O/CI's offer of a qualified body to review cables for items of intelligence interest. Mr. Wisner agreed and instructed [REDACTED] to follow through. [REDACTED] indicated that he had already talked with [REDACTED]

7. Spoke to Col. White regarding the desirability of O/CI having a standby power plant, so that communications would not be interrupted during temporary electric service interruptions. Col. White undertook to follow through on this, since he agreed that such standby power was necessary and desirable.

8. Adm. Wenger phoned respecting the ad hoc PT Committee and gave me a list of tentative designees as follows:

State	- Polyzoides and Packard
Navy	- Roeder and Taylor
Army	- Small and Pratt
Air Force	- Weeks and Miller

Official Diary
1 August 1952

I informed Adm. Wenger that I did not intend to sit myself, but would designate Messrs. Sheldon and [REDACTED] for CIA. I suggested Polyzoides as a most appropriate chairman and Adm. Wenger agreed. Later informed Mr. Sheldon of this. 25X1A9a

9. Spoke to Gen. Samford respecting the evaluation of the U.S. vulnerability study and agreed to sit in with him and Dr. Hoover tomorrow. Also mentioned to Gen. Samford the necessity of designating a new chairman for the Watch Committee and noted that Col. Porter's name had been suggested. Samford indicated that Porter would be unavailable, but undertook to think this over and phone me. I told Gen. Samford that it might be desirable to appoint a temporary chairman, for the time being.

10. Spoke with Mr. Armstrong of State and made arrangements to see him early next week respecting coordination of intelligence support for Psychological Warfare, and related matters.

11. Also spoke with Mr. Armstrong on the problem of replacing chairman of the Watch Committee and requested him to phone after he had had a chance to think this matter over. I also mentioned to him the possibility that an acting chairman should be appointed for the time being.
